Summary: Worlds Collide as heroes meet like no other, Miraculous, Ninja, and Powerpuff with a new hero leading them. What will they face, and are more her ores on the way. Time to assemble and find out!

1. Episode 1

Heroes, they come from everywhere. They are legendary, fighting for truth and justice, and saving the world from monsters and villains alike. There are many, the man of steel, the Dark Knight, the First Avenger. All numerous and form teams like the Justice League, Avengers, and Fantastic four.

But there are also those who exist out of the ordinary. Ones whoâ€¦ unlike other origins, were made and chosen, chosen to be someone who defends from evil under certain circumstances. These heroes will form a new team.

A ninja in training, chosen to defend a high school from monsters and robotsâ€¦.

Three triplet girls with extraordinary powers made by a freak chemical accidentâ€¦.

A duo of a girl and a boy in paris with heroic identities, with neither knowing their own secrets as they move through lifeâ€¦

And the adopted son of a rich tech company who accompanies the triplets with protection of his ownâ€¦.

This is the story of how these heroes meet, and form a new team that combats the evil that corrupts a city.

>(Intro- Avengers: earth's mightiest heroes main theme)

The scene then shows Paris as Hawk Moth opens his window and his moths fly up. Several abbots then attack from McFist while some Powerpuff villains strike. One man sees this, the main character, Jason Young Stark.

(Our world's about to break-Tormented and attacked)

A ninja mask is then shown as a hand grabs it from a box.

(Lost from when we wake, With no way to go back)

The Professor is then seen mixing ingredients together before spilling Chemical X, making the vat explode.

(I'm standing on my own...But now I'm not alone.)

Jason suits up into a light armor as a pair of earrings and a ring drop down and gleam.

(Enforcers... Assemble!)

The entire team is then shown. Jason as Tech Knight as he runs into battle against a random Akuma.

(Always we will fight as one! 'Til the battle's won,With evil on the runâ€¦|)

Jason jumps back as the Powerpuff Girls, Blossom, Bubbles and Buttercup fly in and blast a giant robot with Buttercup using her new energy construct power on a robo-ape horde.

(We never come undone! Assembled we are strong, Forever fight as one!)

Randy Cunningham, 9th grade ninja, appears and slices a robot in half as we cut to Lady Bug and Cat noir fighting side by side with Jason.

(Assembled we are strong, Forever fight as one!)

Jason then is seen with the other heroes and then posing as the song ends. The title then shows.

>Episode 1: Heroes of justice, assemble!

>The city of Paris, France. One of the most revered cities of all time, now host to attacks from super villains of all kinds. No one knows who they are but many believe two heroes save them. Speaking of heroes, let's cut to see some well known heroes, along with a new one. We Join the Powerpuff girls as they come from a station with a boy with blonde hair and a utility belt. This is the adopted son of Tony Stark, known as Iron Man, Jason Young Stark.

"I still cant belive the Professor wants to work with Mr. Stark. Especially after we got our new powers." The green one said.

"Buttercup, you know as well as me and Bubbles that this is important. If the Chemical X formula is patented, we could have sibilings!" The lead one said.

"That's only if, Blossom." Jason said tucking his hair in. "And your father and mine are meeting at a soccer game between the French and English teams, and Pitch Kickham is on the Britain team."

"You seem nice, Jason. Youre already like our brother, I even think we can save lives together." Bubbels said.

"Yeah, you three are well known. 'Saving the world before bedtime', or something like that." Jason said.

"Well, we better hope that this goes smoothly, or we could never pull this off." Blossom said.

>A girl with black hair was walking out her school when a friend of her's came in.

"Hey Marrinete, check it! Chloe has the whole school going to the soccer game today!" Alya said. "She said it was 'because her daddy was there, and as long as he's getting the publicityâ€|' you know?"

"I get it, that is exiting, a game between france and britain with a new starâ€|" Marinette said before realizing. "... but that also means Adrien's gonna be there!"

Adrien was Marinette lifelong crush for a while, and a lot. They have a complex relationship, but what they dont know is their own secrets.

Marrinete rushed back to her house and opened up her bag. Inside was a small creature called a Kwami. Her partner, Tikki.

"Going to try and get Adrien in love with you again? I say go for it." Tikki said.

"I know. This has to work, we both are there, and I'll pull off the perfect moment, and we'll be together." Marrinete said. "But I always get so nervous, what should I say?"

"Just run with it. But dont mention you 'secret'." Tiikki said.

"I know, I know." Marinette said.

Across the city, Adrien was on his computer with his own Kwami, Plagg, munching some camembert cheese.

"So, you excited for the game?" Plagg asked in between bites.

"Yeah but my dad's not gonna be there, again." Adrien said. "But it won't even matter since I get to be in a box with my class."

"C'mon, it's a game. Just have fun." Plagg said.

"Yeah, youre right. Thanks buddy." Adrian said.

>A class of students with a principal came to the stadium, two in back chatting.

"Can you belive we get a summer trip to paris because of Pitch Kickam in the game today? So bruce!" The one in a red shirt with a hoodie said.

"I know! And Mcfist is also letting him promote McHuggers 2.0! But youre not gonna mess that up, right Randy?" The shorter one said.

"I learned that lesson already. Besides Howard, who needs em when I'm a secret enforcer of the night?" Randy said,

"But for nowâ€|. Soccer Slam time!" Howard said.

"Oh yeah!" Randy added.

>Inside the stadium, the game commenced and was in High gear coming into the final leg. Both teams were tied, and all eyes were on Pitch Kickam and Lazlow Blaze as they battled for the final goal.

"So, how're you liking the game, Professor?" Tony asked as he came up with Jason and the girls.

"It certainly is exiting. What are you planning on doing with my formula, Mr. Stark?" The Professor asked.

"Well, I see the formula pioneering some next gen bio-weapons. Also, it would help the environment." Tony said.

"That's seems unusually thoughtful." Blossom whispered.

"He's an Avenger, of course he wants backup members." Jason said.

"I know we just met, but until i can see your girls in actionâ€|" Tony said.

"They only act if there's an emergency, nothing more to it." The Professor said.

As the two star players clashed, Laslow got tripped up and Pitch scored the winning goal as the game ended.

"GOAAAAL!" Pitch said as he whipped his shirt.

Inside the lockers before the ceremony, Lazlow punched his own and got his medal he won before.

"He cheated, I know he did. Those sponsors gave him something that gave him the edge." Lazlo said. "Pitch, no, him and McFistâ€| they need to pay!"

Far away in a dark room, a window opened as a masked man was surrounded by ascending white butterflies that glimmered in the light.

"A star of paris, defeated at the hands of a newcomer, and his flame of battle never goes out." Hawk Moth said. "I'll turn that flame into a raging inferno."

One of the many butterflies landed in his gloved palm. Covering it with his other hand, patches of darkness gathered on it until it was purple with splotches of black.

"Fly away my little Akuma, and evilize him!" Hawk Moth said twirling his cane as the butterfly flew into the city.

Moments later, the butterfly turned up to Laslo unnoticed and sank into the medal Laslo was holding. A part of his face became red, as the etched Hawk Moth's mask appeared in front of him.

Fire Striker, I am Hawkmoth. It is time for a rematch against those who have disgraced you. I give you these powers to burn the ashes of your rivals, in return for the Miraculous of Ladybug and Cat Noir.

"Yes. There is only one winner here, and that's me!" Lazlo said as purple-black goo etched up his body, shaping him, transforming him.

Outside, the fans were cheering.

"Kickham, for what purpose do you have for this amazing victory?" A reporter said.

"Well, I know for a fact that McHuggers 2.0 helped me win. And because of this I can't lose, and it's my win." Kickham gloated.

"YOUR win?!" Said a voice as the right side of the stadium exploded, every single party catching notice as a figure walked out of the smoke. He was wearing a red jersey with orange sweats and spiked cleats. And to top it off, he was covered in armored flames.

"Listen up, Paris! Kickham is a cheater with McFist at his side, and I'm gonna prove that that last goal was a fake, with my flaming shots, so says Fire Striker!" Fire Striker said.

He shot multiple balls into the arena as they exploded, damaging the place as the citizens ran.

"What the juice is that, a new Stankified monster?" Howard asked.

"No, it's not deformed or anything. Something tells me this isn't the Sorcerer's biz." Randy said.

"But shouldn't you do something? This is a ninja-mergency!" Howard said.

"I cant, not unless it gets outta hand." Randy said.

Marinette and Adrien on the other hand, ran to separate spots and hid for something. And the final party watched as Tony's comm rang.

"Tony, we got a situation, should we respond?" Captain America asked.

"No, leave it to these three, they're good with this, right?" Tony said.

"Leave it to us, Mr. Stark!" Blossom said.

"Aw yeah! Butt-kicking time!" Buttercup said as the three crashed through the window and flew to the trouble.

Marrinete found a good place as she released Tikki. "Time to transform." She said.

The earrings on her glowed as Tikki phased into them as marrinete stood straight.

"_Tikki, Spots On!_"

She then put on a mask in red with black spots etched in pink sparkles as a suit of the same pattern formed around her. She then got a type of Yo-Yo as the posed as Ladybug.

Fire Striker kept kicking fireballs as the Powerpuff Girls showed up.

"Stop right there, you!" Blossom said as she punched the villain and sent him back.

"Why you littleâ€¦!" Fire Striker said as he shot another before a Yo-Yo hit back.

"Picking on little girls?" Ladybug said as she jumped down. "Why dont you try someone a little older!"

"Who is that?!" Randy asked.

"No idea, but I'm loving the hero costume!" Howard replied.

Adrien was then seen hiding in a hallway "Gotta get in there too." He said.

"Are you crazy? He kicks fireballs." Plagg said.

"Yeah, I'm still going in." Adrien said thrusting out a ring. "_Plagg, Claws Out!_"

Plagg was absorbed into the ring as Adrien's clothes changed to a black outfit with cat ears on top. The mask changed his eyes to that of a cat. He donned a tail and a pole arm as he posed as his identity of Cat Noir.

Back outside, Ladybug and the Powerpuff girls were fighting the villain. Fire Striker then kicked a ball as it was deflected.

"Alright, that's it!" Buttercup said emitting green energy and creating a missile launcher. "Eat hot missile!"

The missiles fired as Fire Striker deflected one and zoomed up to the executive box. Tony and the Professor dodged, but Jason jumped out a window.

He was falling before his buckle beeped. "That's itâ€¦ the buckle!" He said pressing it as armor formed around him and landed safely. It was white and lighter with etched blue and a batman mask.

"Whoa, I'm just like dad! Iâ€¦. am Tech Knight!" Jason said a fire ball almost hit him before Cat Noir got him out of the way.

"Normally, you name yourself after you beat your first bad guy." Cat Noir said.

"Yeah, point made." Jason said as they joined the battle.

"This is getting crazy! Randy, i think we shouldâ€¦. Randy?" Howard said noticing he was gone.

Randy hid in a corner and pulled out a Ninja Mask.

"Stank or no stank, I gotta do something." Randy said putting it on as black and red threads appeared around him, transforming himâ€¦.

Back outside, the others fought as hard as they could.

"So my lady, seena any guys like this?" Cat Noir asked.

"No, and stop calling me that." Ladybug said.

"Youre all making me angry!" Fire striker said as he fired a ball, only for it to be slashed apart.

"Smokebomb!" A voice called out as smoke appeared and out jumped a Ninja in red in black with red lines and scarf.

"A ninja? Awesome!" Buttercup said.

"No time for autographs kid, we got a guy to bash." The Ninja said.

"Oh, right." Buttercup said.

"I dunno who you all are, but if youre here to helpâ€¦ can you?" Ladybug asked.

"Of course, youre never alone." Jason said.

Fire Striker then saw all of them together.

"Forget the others, bring me the Miraculous!" Hawk Moth said telepathically.

"Dont worry, this is where things get really heated!" Fire striker said as the sides of good and evil faced each other down.

To be continuedâ€|.

2. Episode 2

(Cue-Dragon Ball Z recap theme)

In our last episode, three groups converged on the sight of a soccer game set up in Paris. The Powerpuff girls and Adopted son Jason Young Stark AKA Tech Knight, Marrinete and Adrien, the secret Miraculous pair of Ladybug and Cat Noir, and Randy Cunningham, the 9th grade Ninja. It was there that Lazlo Blaze lost to Pitch Kickam, triggering his pride. Hawk Moth then struck, akumatizing Lazlo into Fire Striker to get the Miraculous once more. One by one, they arrived on the field where they have forged a temporary alliance to deal with the akumatized threat. Will they be able to win? Find out on this episode ofâ€|. The Miracle Enforcers.

(INTRO)

Episode 2: The Heated Match

We open back up to the stadium where the heroes and villain faced down each other. Each one had their own style ready.

Fire Striker charged and kicked a ball to them as they all doged. Ladybug used her Yo-Yo to attack, but failed as it bounced off.

"Ninja Cold balls!" The Ninja said tossing balls as they exploded into an icy prison around Fire Striker, but he broke free. That gave blossom enough time to knock him back again.

Tech Knight then landed some punches as Fire Striker kicked him away. It was was then he noticed the medal around his neck.

"That medalâ€|." Jason thought as he got back in the fight. "Hey, I know what's causing this! See the medal?"

"Yeah, what about it?" Buttercup asked.

"That's where the akuma is?" Ladybug asked. "Then he's Lazlo Blaze."

"So if we cut that thing and get whatever this Akuma is, we defeat this guy?" The Ninja asked. "That's almost like de-stanking someone."

"So go for the medal, not the man? Sounds like a plan to me!" Blossom said.

"They're onto you! Get the Miraculous, before it's too late!" Hawk Moth said.

Fire striker then launched fireballs everywhere as the others doged.

"How do we get that medal off that guy?" The Ninja asked.

"I've got an idea." Ladybug said. "Lucky Charm!"

She threw her Yo-Yo into the air as a swarm of Ladybugs colased into a red and black spot patterned bucket.

"How the heck is a bucket supposed to help?" The Ninja asked.

"Hmm." Ladybug thought as she scanned the surroundings, eyeing the goals, then the light posts before back at the teammates. "Got it. Get ready for a game of soccer." Ladybug said kicking the bucket into the air.

"Oh, I get it! Cat Noir, the light posts!" Jason said.

"You got it! Cataclysm!" Cat Noir called out rusting away the light posts just as the bucket ricocheted off of it and headed for the goal.

"No!" Fire Striker said going for the Bucket.

"My turn!" Blossom said as pink energy formed around her into a broom as she smacked Fire Striker away as the bucket ricocheted off the goal and landed, stuck on top of Fire Striker's head.

"Damn it! Get this thing off of me!" He shouted trying to pull it off.

Jason then dashed to Fire striker. "Shoryuken!" He said uppercutting him as the medal fell into the air.

"Ninja Medal Slice!" The Ninja said slicing it in half with his sword as the Akuma came out.

"No more evildoing for you, Little Akuma." Ladybug said as he opened the yo-yo and started spinning it. "Time to de-evilize!" The Yo-yo then caught the Akuma as it spun before she opened it, releasing a small butterfly. "Bye bye, little butterfly. Miraculous Ladybug!" She called out as she tossed the bucket into the air as the Lady Bug swarm appeared and repaired everything.

"We did it!" Bubbles said.

"No, we did it as a team." Jason said.

Lazlo then awoke. "Uuuuhâ€¦ what happened?" He said.

"Pound it!" Lady Bug and Cat Noir said doing a fist bump.

Back at Hawk Moth's lairâ€¦

"Blasted Ladybug and Cat Noir. Now I have more intruders in my midst. It doesn't matter. I will still win in the end." Hawkmoth said as the sunlight closed.

The next dayâ€¦

"That was impressive, what you did with my son." Tony said.

"Yeah, but who were those other guys? I never even heard of them." Blossom said.

"Maybe this should help." Tony said bringing up some video clips.

"Impressive. A ninja defending a high school and two heroes here in this city." The Professor said.

"Is that even possible, the first one?" Buttercup asked.

"I dunno." Jason said.

"But, seeing you all working together, it gave me a new deal idea." Tony said. "I lead a team called the Avengers. And seeing how well you four worked well with that ninja and that bug/cat duo, you should form a team with them."

"That does seem like a good counter to what you proposed earlier, that villain only went down when all of you worked together." The Professor said.

"And, since Jason's my adopted son, I think he should lead." Tony said.

"Wait, me? I guess I did help a little." Jason said.

"So, the next time something happens, go and find them, I'm sure they feel the same way." Tony said.

Back at school, marrinete talked to Alya.

"Can you belive that teamup just happened? I know cause i recorded it, but still." Alya said.

"Yeah, it wasâ€¦. Amazingâ€¦" Marinette said.

"That one was stronger than the others. If they hadnt helped, who knows what would've happened." Marinette thought. "Maybe teaming up with someone like them is a good idea."

In Randy's hotel roomâ€¦

"Ah, this is Wonk! We're stuck here because Pitch is against going to Norrisville! Now what?" Howard said.

"You tell me. We could go to that school here, butâ€¦ what about those guys? I know I work alone, but I need some context." Randy said.

"Who needs em? You dont need help, why'd you even consider teaming up with them?" Howard asked.

Suddenly, something in Randy's bag flashed. He opened it as a black book was flashing.

"Seriously? The Nomicon is even with your thoughts? It'd better say something to get you out of this." Howard said.

"I doubt it." Randy said as his consciousness was sucked into the Ninja nomicon. He fell to the ground of it where he saw a group of cartoon fighters and the ninja all working together to defeat the monster in front.

"Those who fight as one create something known as a miracle." Randy read. "Ah great, now even you think I should consider a team up? How can I even work with three super kids, an adopted armored son, and a duo of a cat and a ladybug?"

The Nomicon deactivated and Randy awoke.

"Well?" Howard asked.

"It said what I doubted. Sometimes I dont get this thing at all." Randy said.

In norrisville, Hannibal McFist was conversing with the sorceror.

"Whaddya mean you sensed something like your magic?" McFist asked.

"I mean that something equal to my spell was in paris. I cannot reach that far, so someone else must've done it." The Sorcerer said.

"Sir, did you look at these guys who fought yesterday?" Viceroy, Hannibal's assistant said pulling up the fight. "There's the Ninja, but he's working with those other guys. And that thing they're fighting? That's no stanked guy."

"So the Ninja is in paris right now? Perfect! Get a robot there immediately!" McFist yelled.

"Well, I was saving this one for when he did come back, butâ€¦" Viceroy said pressing a button as a giant robot Gorilla rocketed to Paris.

"Even if those others turn up, they will not beat this one, correct?" The Sorcerer asked.

"Rest assured Sorcerer, the Ninja, and those others, are history!" McFist said.

A few minutes later, the robot crashed down in central square and pounded its chest. It then walked to the epicenter as the citizens fled.

"Breaking news, a giant robot ape has landed in Paris! What is the source of this encounter?" A reporter said.

Randy's hotel roomâ€¦.

"McFist! Even here I cant shake him." Randy said.

"Youre going to fight that thing?" Howard asked.

Randy donned his Ninja suit and opened the window. "I'll be fine, it'll be scrap in a few minutes." He said jumping out.

Marinette's roomâ€¦..

"What is that?! I dont see that around paris at all!" Marinette said.

"I dont know at all. Maybe our fight attracted it." Tikki said.

"Whatever the case, I need to stop it." Marinette said brushing her hair away from her earrings. "Tikki, Spots on!"

She then jumped out the window as Ladybug and hurried to the scene.

At the same time, Adrien's roomâ€¦|.

"Whoa, dont see that everyday." Plagg said as Adrien got up.

"I have to go. Plagg, Claws out!" Adrien said transforming into Cat Noir and going out.

Stark Paris officeâ€¦|.

"Sounds like trouble, let's go girls!" Blossom said as the three zoomed away.

"Hey, wait for me!" Jason said suiting up and following them.

"Well, lets see how this goes." Tony said.

The Gorrilla crashed and smashed through paris as it looked for the Ninja.

"Smokebomb!" The Ninja said appearing in a blast of smoke. "Whoa, that's huge. But the bigger they areâ€¦|"

He rushed with his sword and jumped up, but it smacked him away. Before hitting a building, Ladybug arrived and snatched him with his Yo-Yo.

"Gotcha!" She said landing with him.

"What are you doing here? McFist is my enemy." The Ninja said.

"But Paris is my city. You do know that, right?" Ladybug said.

"Well, you wouldn't be a hero if you didnt stick to that." The Ninja said getting a kusarigama. "But I can handle this. Ninja Chain Sickle!" He said swinging up to it.

"Yeah, that's hilarious." Ladybug said going after him.

A few minutes, later, the others arrived.

"I dont see Mojo Jojo anywhere, what is that?" Blossom asked.

"Dunno, but we still need to stop it." Jason said before seeing Cat Noir.

"Birds of a heroic feather flock together." He said jumping down.

"I thought you'd be here. There's a thing I wannaâ€¦" Jason started.

"Whatever it is, save It for later." Cat Noir said rushing in.

"Oh, right." Jason said as the others following him.

As the battle continued, the Ninja struck the robot, but was knocked back into a building dazed, but okay.

"Even with all the heroes together, they still can beat this menace!" The reporter said. "At this rate, it'll take a miracle!"

The Ninja then saw the same words he saw in the Nomicon. "Those who fight as one create something known as a miracle." he said realizing. "Were strong on our own, but if we work together, theres nothing that can stop us. Nomicon, you always know when to come in."

The Ninja ran over to the others and gathered together.

"Listen, the only way to beat this thing is if we work together like before." The Ninja said.

"He's right. When we all battled that Akuma, we used our strengths in conjunction with Ladybug's power to win. Together, there's nothing that we cant beat as a team." Jason said.

"So what's your plan?" Cat Noir asked.

Jason scanned the situation. " After you use those moves of yours, how long can you stay like that?" He asked Cat noir.

"About a minute or so." Cat Noir replied.

"Good enough. Wait for my signal, then use em." Jason said running up with The Ninja.

"Time to go to this bad Monkey's level!" Bubbles said forming a bear with her own energy power. She kept the robot distracted as Tech Knight and the Ninja slashed it's face as Buttercup blasted it with a rocket fist, making it stumble.

"Ladybug, now!" Jason said.

"Lucky Charm!" Ladybug said as the power formed a monkey wrench.

"So, what do I do?" Cat Noir said.

"Youre our ace, just hang back." Jason said as Ladybug scanned and eyed the robot, Cat Noir and the Ninja.

Lady Bug ran to the RObot and dislocated the leg. After wich she then damaged the arm.

"Okay, Cat Noir, now!" Jason said.

"Cataclysm!" Cat Noir said rusting the robot. He then sliced off its head.

"Ninja Hot balls!" The Ninja said blowing the monster up from the inside out.

"They did it! The heroes have won once more!" The reporter said.

"And that's how you work as a team." The Ninja said.
"Smokebomb!"

Later that night, they all gathered.

"So, what is it you wanted to see us for?" Cat Noir asked.

"My dad leads a team of Avengers. We all are heroes in our own right, we defend cities, fight villains, and create miracles. I'm just the son of his, but if we all work together, we can be way more than who we are. We all were together for a reason, to be a team of our own." Jason said. "Now who's with me?"

"We all are. You're a great leader." Blossom said.

"I think it'd be great to have more faces around Paris, I'm in." Ladybug said.

"Me too, wherever she goes, I go." Cat Noir said.

The Ninja looked around. "Might as well. No one ever said ninjas could team up with others."

"Great." Jason said.

"Now this team needs a name. What do we call ourselves?" Buttercup asked.

"Well, when we unite, we do create miracles, so how about... The Miracle Enforcers." The Ninja said.

"I like it. From now on, we're a team, and it'll get bigger as more faces arrive. Let's do our best, everyone!" Jason said.

"Yeah!" Everyone said.

3. Episode 3

Morning dawned on Paris as Jason awoke to find Randy at the door of his own house.

"Hey, is this where you live? Cause I have to..." Randy started.

"You're the Ninja, aren't you?" Jason said.

"Huh? How did you...?" Randy asked.

"Voice pattern is similar to that Ninja. Anyone who's not without a brain can tell." Jason replied.

"Okay, fair enough. So, here's the deal. Me, howard and my class are temporarily moving into that school nearby so that we can keep up education and I can scout out those Akuma guys. They're like stanked monsters back home, except Ladybug needs to take em out for good, so i can manage." Randy said.

"We wouldn't be a team unless we had that." Jason said.

"Yeahâ€¦ I guess." Randy said as he walked out. "I just hope i can keep it together there."

(INTRO)

Episode 3: School Blues

As Randy walke up with the other students, he saw Marrinete looking at Adrien from far away.

"Got a crush on him?" Randy asked making her jump.

"D-dont sneak up on people!" Marrinete said. "Also, who are you?"

"Oh, what was I thinking? Randy Cunningham." Randy introduced.

"Marrinete Dupen-Cheng. You from that class that got stranded here?" Marrinete asked.

"Yeah, that was wonk. Can't argue with what you gotta do though." Randy said. "So, shall we get to class?"

At the classes, it was like any ordinary school, except the main bully was Chloe Bourgeois, a rich girl and the mayor's apparent daughter. From what he learned, almost all of the students were transformed.

The next class was a teacher who had the occult sciences in his autopsy. Franz Volt, who was apparently researching the encounters of all the attacks.

"And due to my research, these attacks aren't random. At the end of each battle, there is always a black butterfly leaving the scene. Which meansâ€¦ someone is sending them to create new villains." Franz said.

"Ugh, you dont know that for sure, they can just, I dunno, pop up randomly?" Chloe said.

"Oh, here we goâ€¦" Marinette said.

"I cant think of any other reason, what else could this mystery hold?" Franz said.

The Nomicon buzzed in Randy's bag as Franz and Chloe prattled on. He secretly opened it and entered it to find a new message.

"Knowledge can be a very dangerous weapon in the wrong hands." Randy read. "What does that mean? That stuck-up girl is the one who started it, not me. What do i have to do with it?"

He was flushed out as the argument ended.

"You dont know anything! One day I'll come back to this school, and when I do, I'll prove you and everyone here wrong!" Franz said leaving in a hurry.

Inside Hawk Moth's lair as the shutters openedâ€|.

"Ah. Those with knowledge to share sometimes have a hard time getting it out." Hawkmoth said as a butterfly flew into his hands as it transformed it into an Akuma. "Fly away my little Akuma, and evilize him!" He said as the Akuma flew out of the window.

Minutes later, the akuma flew unnoticed straight into Franz's documents.

"Mad Scientist, I am Hawk Moth. I will give you the needs to prove your theories real, but in exchange, you must get me Ladybug and Chat Noir's Miraculous." Hawk Moth said.

"I accept. This is just the thing i need to prove my theories correct." Franz said transforming.

As class was dismissed, Randy noticed something. He then hurried to see a man in black lab clothing and white hair pointed up walking the halls with a smile.

"Hello, Mr. Cunningham. Care to sit down on a remedial lesson?" Mad Scientist said throwing an explosive vial which Randy does as the school took notice and ran.

"If you don't approve of my work, then I'll just tear your school down and show the world!" Mad Scientist said as Marinette hid in a hall and released Tikki.

"Better help Randy. I only just met him and he's in danger of being killed." Marinette said brushing her hair past her Earring. "Tikki, Spots On!" She called out transforming into Ladybug.

Randy ran from Mad Scientist as the villain chased him. He then ran into a wall.

"Nowhere to run now, boy!" He said before a Yo-Yo caught him off guard and Ladybug dropped down.

"Ah, Ladybug. Just the one I wanted to see. You are the pinnacle of my research. I'll see you in testing by the time this is over!" Mad Scientist said as Randy sneaked away.

Randy went into the boys bathroom and got his ninja mask. "Okay, so this is gonna just be like de-stanking a monster. No pressure." He said putting it on and getting out as adrien arrived a moment after Randy left.

"Alright. Plagg, Claws Out!" Adrien said transforming into Cat Noir.

Ladybug and Mad Scientist battled away as he prepared to throw another vial as Cat Noir arrived and knocked it away.

"Smokebomb!" The Ninja said appearing next to the two.

Mad Scientist was baffled. "What? A Ninja? My notes only said that you two always show up by yourselves and never with a ninja sidekick."

"Yeah, but you hear the news? We just formed a team of our own, so it's not going to be just the two of us." Cat Noir said.

"And for the record, I'm no sidekick." The Ninja said. "Ninja Rings!"

He tossed a trio of razor rings at the villain and he dodged as the scientist went to the lower levels.

"Forget the Ninja, just get me their Miraculous." Hawk Moth said telepathically.

"I will have my conclusion!" Mad Scientist said blasting volts of electricity. The pair dodged, but Mad Scientist countered the moves they made.

"I have studied the encounters of every villain you have faced. I will achieve where they have failed." Mad scientist said as the Ninja dropped down.

"Knowledge can be a very dangerous weapon in the wrong hands." The Ninja remembered. "So it wasn't meant for me, it was for him. His pursuit of the truth got him akumatized!"

"So where is the bad bug behind all of this?" Cat Noir said.

The Ninja dodged a blast of lighting and saw the documents he was holding. "Aha, the documents!"

He landed as the others regrouped. He gave a punch to Mad Scientist and tried to snatch the documents, but failed as the other two almost got them as they banded together for another strike.

"What are they up to?" Mad Scientist wondered.

"Lucky Charm!" Ladybug said as a soccer ball appeared. "A soccer ball? Where was this the last couple of times?" She said before eyeing the school railings before looking back at the villain. "Got it!"

"Look's like she's got a plan." The Ninja said.

"She always does." Cat Noir said as they moved up as Ladybug kicked the ball past Mad Scientist.

"Whatever youre planning, it wont work." Mad Scientist said.

"Haven't you learned anything from them?" The Ninja said hitting mad scientist to the ricocheting soccer ball. "Expect the unexpected."

"What?" Mad Scientist said as the two forces collided and made him drop the documents. "My documents!"

"Oh sorry, were these yours?" Cat Noir said as he ripped them apart, releasing the akuma.

"No more evildoing for you, Little Akuma." Ladybug said getting her Yo-Yo ready. "Time to de-evilise!" She tossed it as the Akuma was caught inside. The yo-yo spun around until it released a small white butterfly. "Bye Bye, little butterfly. Miraculous Ladybug!" Tossing the ball into the air, the damages and the documents were returned to normal.

"What? How didâ€¦?" Franz said dazed.

"Pound it!" All three said bumping fists.

"Let this be a lesson, you cant understand what happens all the time. Smokebomb!" The ninja said as all three disappeared.

"Another champion lost." Hawkmoth said. "But this Ninja, he is becoming a new thorn in my side. I wonder, if his power could be on par with the Miraculous. I'll just have to acquire it for myself." He said as the shutters closed.

"And then I hit the guy into the ball, the documents were shredded and bam! I think I might get used to these akumatized guys." Randy said.

"Let's just make sure you dont attract too much attention." Jason said hearing a doorbell. "Ah, that'll be the door."

He opened the door to see Franz there.

"Are you Jason Stark?" He asked.

"Yeah, what of it?" Jason replied.

"Your team is impressive, and I would like to be your research into new teammates, and also the sources of your heroic deeds." Franz said.

"Well we could always use some new members. I'll have you in. What have you got?" Jason said.

"Well, there are more unusual things out there beyond you. And I think some of these can be on your level." Franz said tossing down two folders. "These two, are my most interesting pieces."

The folders contained a wand like object with a star in the middle with some accompanying monster pictures and a man in a silver and blue suit with an M pattern.

"Who are they?" Jason asked.

"That's for your team, and the world, to find out." Franz said.

4. Episode 4

Jason looked over the files of the heroes he received.

"A duo of a android and a man supercharged with energy, and an interdimensional traveller with an item so powerful, it could tear apart the very fabric of the universe. Not a bad couple of first choices." Jason said. "But if I wanna get them on my side, I have to contend with this mysterious Hawk Moth and this McFist guy. No telling who else is out there, and when they'll strike next."

At McFist HQ

"The Ninja helped these two take out another one of these villains?" McFist asked Viceroy.

"It maybe a little late to go after him now that he's with those others. Maybe we should look elsewhere." Viceroy said bringing up the Powerpuff Girls.

"Three little kids? What makes them so special?" McFist asked.

"A special chemical compound that created them, giving them superhuman abilities. They call it Chemical X." Viceroy replied.

"If we can capture them and harness that chemical, our new robots made will make mincemeat outta the Ninja! Genius!" McFist said.

"A great idea it is, sir." Viceroy said sarcastically.

>Episode 4: To Catch a Super

>It was a day in paris as Jason walked the town. He read over the files as the girls walked beside him.

"So, whos the girl youre looking at in the photo?" Blossom asked.

"Her names of all things, Star Butterfly. She's a princess, but not your average one. She's from another dimension, currently attending school in our universe." Jason said. "She's got one heck of a weapon, The Star Wand. Anything she says or thinks, the wand blasts, and normally something ends up exploding or otherwise damaged."

"I like her." Buttercup said.

"Yeah, why wouldn't you?" Jason said before his phone rang.

"We got a robot attack downtown, it's looking for something." Randy said.

"On our way." Jason said suiting up as they all bolted to the scene.

A mid sized robot with grappiling claws smashed through downtown and roared as it prepared another strike.

"Smokebomb!" The Ninja said appearing. "Dunno what youre looking for, but I'm stopping it. Cool? Cool."

He charged at the robot who smacked him into a building. Cat Noir then arrived.

"I've heard of going up against a wall before, but this is ridiculous." Cat Noir said.

"Are you here to mock me, or actually help?" The Ninja asked.

"Eh, Bit of both." Cat Noir said charging with him. They strucj with thier weapons as the robot stumbled.

"Ninja Grapple claw slash!" The Ninja said slashing apart the robot and finishing it as the others arrived.

"We came to help, but you got this handled. What was it after?" Jason said getting its hard drive. "Maybe this can help us."

Back at Jason's own house

"Wierd, the directives are mixed, but it's after the girls? Why?" Jason wondered.

The next morning, Jason slept late to find the girls missing. He checked his phone. "An attack while I was sleeping? And they didn't tell me? They must've gotten captured or something."

He checked his GPS and saw their signals in an underground warehouse. "It all makes sense, McFist wants the chemical compound. I knew he wouldn't stay back." He got his communicator out and called the others. "Guys, the girls are missing and McFist is behind it. Meet me at these coordinates and bring your A-game."

The heroes met at the warehouse all suited up and saw the entrance.

"It's obviously a trap. McFist wants the chemical." Ladybug said.

"I know, but they're our team mates, lets get in there." Jason siad bashing the door in to find three robotic versions of the girls.

"Hello, Enforcers. Meet the Mecha-Power's!" McFist said.

"For a corrupt official, he has no imagination." Cat Noir said seeing the real three. "I see em!"

The Mechas charged as the remaining three tried to fend them off. They were matched move for move, with the powers of the girls mixed with the weaponry.

"It's like fighting our own teammates!" Ladybug said.

"Yeah that happens often." Jason said as he dodged a missile and the Ninja faced mecha blossom and bubbles as they prepared to fire.

"Heh." The ninja said. "The best way to Avoid an attackâ€¦.is to avoid and attack!" He said dodging the blast's at the last second and destroying them both. He jumped up to the girls and freed them.

"And that'sâ€¦ why ninja's are awesome." Buttercup said. "But now only my robots left."

"And it's tough." Jason said.

"Then It's time to get seriousâ€¦ and lucky." The Ninja said nodding to Ladybug.

"Read you loud and clear. Lucky Charm!" She called out as a fluttering cloth appeared. "A cloth huh?" Ladybug said before eyeing robo buttercup and back at the cloth. "Got it! Hey, robo. Toro toro!" Ladybug said to The robot holding the cloth up like a flag.

The robot charged as it charged and missed, Jason getting ready.

"Nice set up! I got it!" He said firing a small missile which detonated a second later.

"Well that went well, we didnt win!" McFist said.

"But we did get just enough of a sample to experiment on. Might come in handy next time." Viceroy said.

"Maybe youre right. What is a plan without a few setbacks." Mcfist said.

Back with Jason and Tonyâ€¦

"I think it's time I showed you something. Your house is a little crowded, so I cooked this up for you and Franz." Tony said seeing a HQ.

"Nice. Just what we need." Jason said.

"So, what was McFist after with Chemical X?" Franz asked.

"I dunnoâ€¦" Jason said. "But it cant be anything good for now." He said as it cut to a processed vial.
